Yesterday afternoon Justice Curtis issued a state warrant for the arrest of Doc Garvey, for making a deadly assault on George D. Brockway, near Orono, on July 28th. Constable Campbell to-day was given the papers, and on Monday he will bring Garvey to Decatur for trial. It appears that Brockway and Garvey, who are young men, were at work together in a field. The former was rigging the latter about a young lady, and Garvey, getting angry, grasped a pitchfork and made a dash at Brockway, inflicting a wound on his arm. Brockway alleges that Garvey threatened to kill him. It is stated Garvey will have Brockway arrested.

Miss Ella Race gave a fashionable reception and party at her home last night, the J. K. Race mansion, on North Water street, in honor of her cousin, Dot Watson, of Springfield, who has been in the city on a visit. It was one of the most recherche affairs of the season, and though the temperature was high, the elegantly appointed parlors were made so cool as possible. The lawn was splendidly illuminated by Japanese lanterns that were tastefully hung about in great profusion. The Opera orchestra furnished the inspiration for the terpsichorean pleasures, and there was served a bountiful supply of choice refreshments.
The invited guests were Miss Dot Watson, of Springfield, Miss Grace Briggs, of Franklin, Ind., Misses Moore and Barnes, of Chicago, Misses Hunt, of Deatur, Col. Mrs. John F. W. B. Gamet, of Springfield, Mrs. J. W. B. Gamet, of Quincy, and Misses Lou and Dora Watson, of Hannibal, Mo. Last evening the birthday anniversary of Cora Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin, was celebrated in a novel manner, and the hearts of the 38 little folks were made glad. The celebration was arranged by Josephine Stamper and Battie Brown, who gave the children a free round trip street car ride to Oakland Park and the Union depot and return. It was a jolly company, all singing as they went through on the cars. After the excursion, the guests of Cora and Lida were provided with refreshments at the Martin residence.
THE gray mare lost by Hall & Hosteler a few nights ago has been found. She was taken up by Jesse Austin, southwest of Decatur a few miles. Ernest Strader rejoices over the recovery of the animal that he supposed had been stolen from the Hopkins barn at Elvin. She probably strayed off.

CHICAGO's defeat by Boston and Detroit's victory over Washington yesterday place the Sluggers four games ahead of Chicago, the champions in turn being four games ahead of New York. Too Many Questions.
"Mamma, we are all made of dust?"
"Yes, my son."
"I was born in January, wasn't I?"
"Yes, little boy."
"But there ain't any dust in January."
The ground is all frozen in January, ain't it?"
"For heaven's sake, Johnny, don't ask so many foolish questions."
"But I am made of dust, ain't I?"
"Yes, of course."
"Why don't I get muddy inside when I drink water?"
"Good gracious, child, do give me a rest!"

After all the cross-firing on the streets and in the newspapers, and predictions that the improvement would be purposefully retarded, this morning Contractor Hunt commenced making excavations on Cerro Gordo street for the paving of that thoroughfare with brick. The work will be pushed forward rapidly and brick will be laid as fast as they can be had. Meantime Giblin & Dempsey are pushing their contract for the second route to the depot on Franklin, East William and Morgan streets. Next year there will be more work of the same kind to do in different parts of the city. Then the brick makers at home will be well supplied with hard-burnt material.

In New Quarters.
Herman Spies has removed his book-binding establishment to cozy quarters on the second floor of the Republican office building, where he is better prepared than ever to do first-class work in his line on short notice and at reasonable figures. He occupies the west half of the second floor. Give him a call when you want binding or any sort of repair work done.

Disgraced Lottery Speculators.
MATROON, Ill., July 29.—The drawing of a lottery, intended to raise a fund for the widows and orphans of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, took place in a hotel at Terre Haute last evening. Over $50,000 worth of tickets were sold at $2 each. All prizes of any value, including the fine Nixon farm near this city, were drawn by the brotherhood. There is much dissatisfaction among the small ticket-holders, and members of the brotherhood in this city say the real estate will probably be confiscated to the state, a suit now pending in the Circuit court of Cole county being deferred. It is said, by the managers "shipping" over into Indiana. The land is said to be heavily mortgaged.

Judge Hughes caused the Oles county grand jury to indict the ring-leaders, and at the next term of court the cases will doubtless come up for trial. A number of Decatur people bought tickets hoping to get the farm.

She Is Dead.
Maud Villars, the pretty young girl who was formerly employed in the Magill House, in Clinton, and whose name, on account of her waywardness, acquired notoriety in Decatur newspapers, died in Springfield last week. Ever since she left Clinton her life has been downward in the scale of degradation, and at the time of her death she had fallen disreputably low and shameful. She was arrested here on a charge of larceny.

Status in Honor of Our City Fathers.
Eos. REPUBLICAN: Our City Fathers have decided to place a bronze statue in the new square of the old time patriotic typical American, Commodore Stephen Decatur. Said statue to be seven feet high, and placed under the aqua-flowing umbrella of the goddess of protection to American industries. It is to be put in a position that will not obscure the view of the ears and hoofs of the triumvirate tree trade reformed spouting Cleveland Democrats now in position.

In order to procure a perfect Apollo for a model to be forwarded to Italy, where the statue will be cast, the committee have notified the following gentlemen to appear at Shively's new art gallery on Monday, August 24, at 12 o'clock a. m., sharp, in dishabille, wearing of sandals on their feet of the pattern of 1776, provided the sky is clear and temperature at 100, for the purpose of obtaining a full length photo on separate cards, from which His Honor and the Council will select the most perfect model of the noblest representation of the human frame. The lucky one

"Must be a combination and form indeed, whose every God did seem to set his seal, To give the world assurance of a man."

Those notified are T. A. Pritchett, Hunter Millikin, J. R. Mosser, Jason Rogers, John Hatfield, Alas. McOlellan and Muzzey, W. W. Foster, J. N. Bills, Judge Greer, Gus Hardy, W. A. Barnes, Doctor H. O. Johns, J. W. Race, Mr. Finn (not the lawyer), John Irwin, C. O. Clark, C. A. Ewing, Gov. Oglesby, P. B. Provost John McElroy, E. A. Gastman, Maj. J. J. H. Young (not the city editor), I. N. Coltrin, Walter Pope, D. Brennum, Charles Lantz, J. G. Fish, J. Millikin, the banker, Alexander, the street boss, C. A. Tuttle and Harry Ferrell. Strict privacy at the gallery, no spectators admitted. Any of the above named gentlemen who do not, by the girle belt, measure at least 63 inches net around the home of brains, need not appear. By order of the Committee.

MANAGER MORAN has sent out a challenge to the effect that he will play the Decatur club against any non-professional club in Illinois, Missouri, Indiana and Kentucky, at $100 a side, two best in three, Morgan putting up his own money, games to be played after the return of the club from the north.

Camp-Meeting Notes.
The Clinton papers of this week make the following notes of the Harrison camp-meeting:

There are about 75 tents on the ground. Rev. Harrison will leave Clinton Tuesday morning.

Col. Snell manifests a great deal of interest in the meeting.

There are tenters from all points within a radius of 30 miles from Clinton.

About 40 ministers have visited the ground since the meeting began.

There were nearly 200 conversions up to Thursday.

The contributions at the gate have reached $1,000.

Rev. Harrison predicted at the beginning that there would be 500 conversions.

There is to be a harvest feast next Monday lasting from six in the morning until 12 at night.

Rev. Dimmitt, who was instrumental in bringing about the camp-meeting, is the happiest person in camp.

Mrs. A. W. Conklin, of Decatur, has contributed valuable aid to the musical part of the services. She is a beautiful singer.

An old man of 82, through the influence of his fifteen-year-old grand-daughter, went forward Sunday. Age is often benefited by listening to youth.

Three frail sisters who had taken up their abode out at the grounds were unanimously bounced from the camp last Saturday.

It is not at all unlikely that the expenses of the meeting will figure up somewhere near a thousand dollars, all of which has been provided for by the church.

Present from Decatur—W. J. Werner, Mrs. Folker, Mrs. Gier, Cyrus Imboden, Geo. Stare, Taylor Blaine, Miss Newman, John Marks, Mrs. Reese, Mrs. Shutt, Mrs. Blaine.

Sudden Death.
On Wednesday afternoon of last week Thos. J. Reeves, of Hillsboro, arrived from Decatur, where he had been visiting a couple of sons who are in business there, to visit his cousin, W. G. Leachman. He and Mr. Leachman were boys together, and were reared in the same neighborhood in Putnam county, Ind., though they had not met before for sixteen years.

Mr. Reeves remarked that he felt unusually well Friday, ate supper with his usual appetite, but at about 8 o'clock he was taken with hemorrhage of the stomach, with which he had been afflicted the past two years. He soon felt better, and refused to have a physician summoned. He rested well through the night, and got up next morning and washed, but was taken with another spell, when Dr. Martin was summoned, but to no purpose, as the patient died at about 7 1/2 o'clock.

Mr. Leachman telegraphed his sons at Decatur, who arrived on the afternoon train, and left for Hillsboro the same day with their father, remaining for interment there. The deceased was in his 62d year, and leaves a widow, his second wife, and two children in addition to the two sons at Decatur.—Tuscola Review, July 30th
